

Vetiver Grass in the Oberoi Hotel in Kuta, Bali

Vetiver was planted in several large leachfields to treat large volumes of wastewater thereby reducing pollution of a nearby creek and the popular tourist beach in front of the hotel

